Subject: ORS v. CWS; Docket No. 2010-146-WS

Dear Mrs. Boyd:

This follows up on the voicemail message that Nanette Edwards, Esq. and I left you this afternoon regarding the above-referenced matter.

As indicated in that message, the parties would like to have the schedule regarding this proceeding altered in the following particulars:

1. The hearing currently scheduled for July 27th would go forward for the limited purpose of allowing the customer witnesses sponsored by ORS and any public witnesses to present their testimonies to the Commission at that time;
2. Another hearing be set approximately 45 days from July 27th for the purpose of allowing ORS staff witnesses and CWS witnesses to present their testimonies to the Commission;
3. The current deadlines for the filing of rebuttal testimony by ORS and surrebuttal testimony by CWS be extended such that they will be due two weeks and one week, respectively, before the proposed subsequent hearing.

The reason for the parties' request is that they are working together to develop solutions to certain issues which, it is hoped, might address one or more of the matters raised in this proceeding and perhaps form a basis for limiting issues in some manner. In that regard, if such a solution is determined, a submission of same to the Commission would be forthcoming.

Please let me or Ms. Edwards know if you have any questions or require additional information. We very much appreciate your cooperation and consideration of this request.
